

Dear Athletic Director,

The American Cancer Society will once again sponsor an All State Queen Competition during the Oklahoma Coaches Association clinic. During halftime of the All State Football Game, the queen candidates will be introduced, followed by the crowning of one (1) East queen and one (1) West queen. Each East and West winner will be the recipient of a $500.00 scholarship. The All State Football Game will take place on Friday, July 26, 2024, at the Crain Family Stadium at the Hurt Complex, Oklahoma Baptist University, 2320 N. Airport Dr., in Shawnee, OK.

Each school that has an All State athlete is eligible to submit a nomination for only one (1) candidate. This candidate will represent all sports. The queen nominee must be a graduated senior. She is responsible for attending the All State Queen luncheon followed by a short interview and the All State Football Game on Friday, July 26, 2024. In the event your queen nominee makes an All State team, she may only choose the Queen competition or the All State game. (Softball, Baseball and Soccer excluded – Not OCA sanctioned.)

Please have your nominee return the nomination form along with two (2) labeled senior pictures. If mailing, please label the back of each picture with her name and school. One photo will go into the All State Program; the other photo will be sent to the American Cancer Society. This information must be returned to the OCA office by June 22, 2024.
